Veneration of the Holy Cross

A Prayer before the Life-Giving Cross of the Lord

O most honorable and Life-creating Cross of the Lord, sanctified by the Blood of Christ our God, and become for us, through His Death, the deliverance from eternal death!

You are the sign of victory over our enemies, visible and invisible! You shall appear at the hour of the dread Judgment of Christ: to you I bow down in humility, I touch you with honor and embrace you in love, offering this prayer to Him Who was crucified on you, that He might heal me by His Power which is in you, from all of my ills of body and soul, and preserve me from enemies visible and invisible, and cause me to stand uncondemned on the right hand at His Judgment Seat.

Yea, O holy and Life-giving Cross, on you the Saviour, dying for humanity which was dead in sin, gave up the ghost like a mortal, and shed blood and water, and by these three, wrought for us one Salvation of which we have need more than all things: unto the glory of God the Father, the Source of Living Waters; and unto Himself, God the Son, incarnate of the Virgin's blood, and God the Holy Spirit, Who enlivens the spirit of man:

Help me to glorify these Three in One Godhead in my gratitude, having received the incorrupt faith through the waters of Baptism, and the communion of the Body and Blood of the Lord in unshaken hope, a spirit contrite in penitence and love unfeigned: and not only in this life filled with tears, which passes as waters flowing by, full of battles and shed blood, and like steam vanishes, but also in the blessed life to come let me glorify the Lord, by the aid of your strength, O thrice-blessed Cross, so that I may glorify in the very Presence Him, in Whom I have believed, on Whom I have hoped and Who is my beloved delight:

The One glorified in the Holy Trinity, for ages of ages. Amen.

Synaxarion for the Third Sunday of Great Lent

"Let all the earth venerate the Cross, through which it has learned to worship You, the Word."

On this third Sunday of the Great Fast we celebrate the Veneration of the precious and life-giving Cross. Since during the forty days of the Fast we are also in a way crucified, mortified to the passions, contrite, abased and despondent, the precious and life-giving Cross is offered to us as refreshment and confirmation, calling to mind the Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ and comforting us. If our God was crucified for our sake, how great should be our effort for His sake, since our afflictions have been assuaged through the Lord's tribulations, and by the commemoration and the hope of the Cross of glory. For as our Savior in ascending the Cross was glorified through dishonor and grief, so should we also endure our sorrows, in order to be glorified with Him. Also, as those who have traveled a long hard road, weighed down by the labors of their journey, in finding a shady tree, take their ease for a moment and then continue their journey rejuvenated, so now in this time of the Fast, this sorrowful and laborious journey, the Holy Fathers have planted the life-giving Cross, for our relief and refreshment, to encourage and make easier the labors that lie ahead. Or as when there is a royal procession, the king's scepter and banners precede him, and then he then himself appears, radiant and joyous in his victory, causing his subjects to rejoice with him. So then our Lord Jesus Christ, desiring to show His sure victory over death and His glory on the day of the Resurrection, sends His scepter before Himself, the sign of His kingship, the life-giving Cross, to gladden and refresh us, as it greatly fortifies and enables us to be prepared to receive the King with all possible strength, and to praise Him in His radiant victory.

This week lies at the middle of the holy Forty Day Fast. The Fast is like a bitter source because of our contrition and the sadness and sorrow for sin that it brings. And as Moses plunged the branch in the bitter waters of Marah, making them sweet, so God, Who has led us through the spiritual Red Sea away from Pharaoh, through the life-giving wood of the precious and life-giving Cross, sweetens the bitterness of the Forty Day Fast, and comforts us as those who were in the wilderness, up until the time when by His Resurrection He will lead us to the spiritual Jerusalem. And since the Cross is called, and indeed is, the Tree of Life, it is the very tree that was planted in the Garden of Eden. So it is fitting that the Holy Fathers have planted the Tree of the Cross in the middle of the Forty Day Fast to commemorate both Adam's tasting of its sweet fruit and of its being taken from us in favor of the Tree of the Cross, tasting of which we shall in no way die, but will have even greater life.

*Through the power of Your Cross, O Christ our God, preserve us also from the temptations of the Evil One.
And make us worthy to venerate
Your divine Passion and life-bearing Resurrection, having radiantly traversed the great length of the Fast,
and have mercy on us, as You are good and love mankind.
Amen.*
